

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

The types of inspection and materials testing projects that Wang has worked on include Interstate, federal, and local highways and streets, rail and rapid transit facilities, airports, water, wastewater and sewer facilities, public, commercial, and industrial structures. Some of the major projects we have worked on in the Chicago Area include:

- City of Chicago Department of Transportation Quality Assurance Materials Testing for the Wacker Drive Reconstruction
- City of Chicago Department of Transportation Professional Engineering Services for Quality Control/Quality Assurance Engineering;
- City of Chicago Citywide ADA Ramp Construction;
- City of Chicago Department of Water Management Jardine Water Treatment Plant, Upper Roadway Rehabilitation;
- City of Chicago Department of Aviation O'Hare Modernization Program Runway 10C/27C Extension;
- City of Chicago Department of Aviation O'Hare Airport Apron Replacement over American Airlines Baggage Room;
- City of Chicago Department of Aviation Midway Airport Elevated Parking Structure;
- Illinois Department of Transportation District Two Various Projects – Various Counties Contracts
- Illinois Capital Development Board Truman College Student Services and Parking Structure;
- Illinois Tollway Interstate 88 (Ronald Reagan Memorial Tollway) Westbound between Illinois Route 83 and Finley Road;
- Illinois Tollway Interstate 355 (Veterans Memorial Tollway) Widening and Ramp Reconstruction at 75th Street;
- Metra North Central Service Expansion and Union Pacific West Line Service Expansion;
- Fox River Water Reclamation District West Waste Water Treatment Plant;